FAKE
Imposter Scams

• #1 fraud reported to Consumer Sentinel in 2019
• Government imposter scams:
  − Medicare
  − Relief payment messages
• Other imposters:
  − Family emergency
  − Tech support
  − Romance/online dating
• For more information, visit ftc.gov/imposters.

Oh, the stories scammers tell . . .

Phony Social Security Administration – “Your Social Security number has been frozen, but we’ll help you keep your money ‘safe’!”

Health & Human Services/Medicare con – “Call now for your free back brace!”

IRS imposter – “There’s a lawsuit against you for unpaid taxes.”

Fake government grant offer – “You’re eligible for a government grant . . . for a fee.”

Bogus police, sheriff, or FBI – “There is a warrant for your arrest for failing to appear in court!”
Treatments and Cures

- Vaccine offers
- Test kit offers
- Miracle cures
- Medicare-related scams

- Download new fraud prevention activity sheets for older adults – For Older Americans month, we are releasing new downloadable handouts and activity sheets based on the popular fraud prevention placemat series.

- Protections for renters during the coronavirus pandemic – Federal, state, and local governments are taking action to protect renters. Learn more and take steps to manage your rental payments.

- Considering an early retirement withdrawal? CARES Act rules and what you should know – The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act temporarily changes the rules for withdrawing from your retirement accounts. Learn more about how these changes might affect you and whether withdrawing from your retirement accounts makes sense for you.
Errand Helper Scams

• Scammers offer help with errands, then run off with the money.
• If you’re an older adult:
  – Try to find a trusted friend or neighbor.
  – If you order online, use a trusted seller.
• If you’re a caregiver:
  – Check in by phone or video chat.
  – Ask questions.
• If you need more help, contact the Eldercare Locator at eldercare.acl.gov or 1-800-677-1116.
Keeping Up with Your Bills

• If you have trouble paying your bills or loans, or paying on time, there may be a number of options to help.

• Contact your lenders, loan servicers, and other creditors.

• Be prepared to explain:
  - Your financial and employment situation
  - How much you can afford to pay
  - When you’re likely to be able to restart regular payments
  - Your income, expenses, and assets
  - That you are experiencing financial hardship due to the COVID-19 emergency
Mortgage Payment Options

• For many homeowners with mortgages, there’s help, but first assess your situation.
  – If you can pay your mortgage, pay your mortgage.
  – If you can’t pay your mortgage or can only pay a portion, contact your mortgage servicer immediately.

• CARES Act relief options for homeowners with federally backed mortgages:
  – Foreclosure moratorium
  – Forbearance
What Is Forbearance?

• Forbearance means that your mortgage servicer or lender allows you to temporarily pay your mortgage at a lower payment or pause paying your mortgage. You will have to pay the payment reduction or the paused payments back later.
  - Forbearance does not erase the amount you owe on your mortgage.
  - Forbearance is complicated.
  - How you repay the amount you missed during forbearance depends on the type of mortgage you have.
  - See consumerfinance.gov/housing.
CARES Act Mortgage Relief Options

• Steps to take:
  − Figure out who services your mortgage. This is who you need to contact.
  − Figure out if your mortgage is federally backed.

• If your mortgage is:
  − Federally backed: Call your servicer and let them know your situation immediately. Ask them what forbearance or hardship options may be available.
  − NOT federally backed: You still may have relief options through your mortgage servicer or from your state.

Protecting Your Credit

- Get a copy of your credit report.
  - Due to COVID, until April 2021, you can get free weekly credit reports at annualcreditreport.com.

- If you can’t make payments, contact your lenders. Be sure to get confirmation of any agreements in writing.

- The CARES Act places special requirements on companies that report your payment information to credit reporting companies.
  - In many situations, if you have an agreement with your lender, you can continue to be reported as current on your loan during a forbearance.

- Routinely check your reports and dispute inaccurate information.

  Use the CFPB’s step-by-step guide to dispute that information: consumerfinance.gov/coronavirus.
Economic Impact Payments (EIPs)

• EIP basics
• Your clients may not have received their EIP—ask!
• Spread the word: outreach and assistance strategies
• Help people claim the EIP—step by step:
  – Checking status
  – Key information
  – Common issues
• Get the guide:
Need More Help or Have a Complaint?

• Where to get additional help: consumerfinance.gov/coronavirus
  – HUD-approved housing counselors
  – Credit counselors
  – Lawyers

• If you have a problem with a financial product or service:
  – Reach out to the company first.

• The CFPB helps consumers connect with financial companies to understand issues, fix errors, and get direct responses about problems.

Marylanders Warned to Be Cautious

Comptroller Franchot Warns Taxpayers of Phishing Scams to Steal Stimulus Checks

Individuals and tax preparers being targeted via phone, text message and email

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (March 30, 2020) - Comptroller Peter Franchot today warns Marylanders not to fall victim to scammers trying to steal your stimulus check.

These swindlers are making phone calls, sending text messages and phishing...
Tax Preparer Fraud

• When to report a tax preparer:
  – Not registered with the IRS or state
  – Theft of refund
  – Will not release original documents (like W-2) until taxpayer pays
  – Does not include name and IRS PTIN on return
  – Files return without consent
  – Alters return after taxpayer signs it
  – Under-reported or made-up income/documents
  – Other intentional misrepresentations on the tax return
Other Scams

- Gift card scams
- Warranty scams
- Fake cures or tests for COVID-19
- Securities schemes
- Fraudulent charities
- Impersonating government websites
- Malicious software disguised as “coronavirus” maps
- Fleeceware apps to track COVID-19 and then hold your information for ransom
- Recruiting people to be “money mules”
Questions to Ask Before You Take Action to Help You Avoid Scam Involvement

Overwhelmed with Coronavirus info? Ask yourself these questions:

- Who is the message from?
- What do they want you to do?
- What evidence supports the message?

After you answer all 3 questions, does the message still seem accurate?

Why Learning about Scams Matters

• If you know about a specific scam:
  – You are 80% less likely to engage with the scammer.
  – If you do engage, you are 40% less likely to lose money or personal info.

Why Do Bad Scams Happen to Good People?

- Criminals are good at what they do.
- Goal: Get target into a heightened emotional state—fear, need, or excitement
- Once there, we can’t access our logical thinking process.
Scams and Fraud in the Time of COVID

- Scammers follow the headlines and pivot.
- COVID-related scams abound.
- But, tried and true continues to succeed.
Who Do Criminals Target?

• All of us, regardless of:
  – Age, education, cognitive ability
  – Income and assets
• But:
  – Older adults tend to lose more when victimized.
A Word about Words

A victim of financial crime is as much a victim as a victim of violent crime, yet look at the language we use:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Financial crime victims:</th>
<th>Violent crime victims:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• She was duped.</td>
<td>• She was held at gunpoint.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• He fell for it.</td>
<td>• They were viciously assaulted.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• He got taken.</td>
<td>• He was brutally murdered.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• They were scammed.</td>
<td>• She was forcibly raped.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The Language of Shame

• “I cannot fathom the level of gullibility it would take for someone to send money to someone they have never met. It’s just beyond my level of comprehension. That is the kindest way I can express what I’m thinking right now.”
• “Very sad, but really, these women need their heads screwed on properly.”
• “Good God... Where has common sense gone? I know people are lonely; hell, I am lonely, but I am not stupid...”
How Shaming Weighs on Victims

• “Actually, I was kind of embarrassed. My daughters sort of made me feel stupid.”
• “I’ve always thought I am smart enough not to be caught in a scam. I think I was acting out of my emotions.”
• “The mental anguish still lingers after it’s over. I hope in time I can overcome the embarrassment and humiliation of believing all the lies, of feeling so stupid for ignoring my intuition, and be able to gain some semblance of confidence to trust my decisions.”
Flipping the Narrative

• What if we said:
  – “Falling victim is not your fault. It’s the fault of the criminal who perpetrated this crime. I am sorry you’ve had to endure this. Let’s talk through it to understand what happened so you will be able to spot the red flags of scams in the future.”
It Matters Because...

• Fraud victims deserve empathy and respect rather than scorn and humiliation.
• Families won’t see their victim parent as a “fool” and will thus protect the relationship.
• Police may be more inclined to take a complaint—even pursue the case—rather than claim it’s a civil matter.
• Prosecutors might respect the impact of financial crime on older adults and might take on more cases.
• Policymakers might get that fraud victims aren’t stupid or addled, and they’d do more to address the scourge—maybe even find a means of restitution.
The All Too Human Toll

- Billions of dollars lost, with little chance of restitution
- More than a million marriages damaged by the effects of dealing with fraud
- Thousands dying by suicide each year
- Remembering Albert Poland
The Face of a Victim

• He died by suicide at 81.
• He suffered from cognitive decline.
• In his note, he told his family not to spend much on his funeral and said he hoped that when more than $2 million arrived tomorrow, it would vindicate him.

Albert Poland
Let’s Flip the Narrative

• OUT: Judging victims, lack of empathy for the victim:
  - Scammed
  - Duped
  - Conned
  - Swindled
  - Fell for it
  - Got taken

• IN: Putting the focus on the crime, empathy for victim:
  - Perpetrated
  - Coerced
  - Deceived
  - Targeted
  - Victimized
  - Preyed on
